Versailles, Mo.

OFFICE UPSTAIRS IN WOODS BLOCK, Over Karpell Drug Store.

P. S. If in arrears it will be necessary for you to pay up if you would take advantage of this most liberal offer.

THE GRAND LEADER

Is The Most Interesting Place in Versailles.

Have you visited the new store in Versailles (The Grand Leader) where a little money buys more than at any other place in Morgan County and where satisfaction is guaranteed with every sale or your money back. Remember this, as we sell you an article for ten cents it carries our guarantee or money back, just the same as if you had paid the usual price of 25 cents for it, and as we do not sell anything in this store for more than one dollar, the customer can have many things for one dollar which is being sold every where at $1.50 and $2.00 for the same article. Also remember we will be headquarters for Christmas candies and holiday goods.

BROWN & BREECE,
Proprietors.

near No. 4.

Mr. John Silvey and family, of Versailles, moved on Mr. Fred Heinemann's farm near Antioch church.

Some few are killing hogs through this neighborhood.

Misses Tracie and Annie Rumons are still visiting relatives and friends in this neighborhood.

Last Friday, Nov. 10, being Mrs. T. H. Morris' birthday, her children all gathered in and surprised her. Those who were present, without her children and grandchildren, were Mr. James A. Hughes, Mr. R. Lyles, Mr. Nel. Lyles and wife, and Mr. Virgil Lyles. All report a good time.

Mr. O. L. Morris and wife visited Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Silvey, of Proctor, a few days the last of last week.

Which will give the world the most fun, the Cammorists or the McNamara trial, or will the Hyde trial fade 'em both? And why should such trials be?

A Little Problem.

If a marketman buys a turkey for 12 cents a pound and sells it for 18, and his hand weighs 4 pounds and the turkey weighs 12, what is the man's profit.

Santa Claus Letters.

It is time for the little folks to get busy. Get your tablets and pencils and write Old Santa what you want, send or bring them to The REPUBLICAN office, always remembering that The Morgan County REPUBLICAN is the only Morgan County paper Santa reads, and we will publish them in the issue of Dec. 7th, giving the old gentleman plenty of time to hunt up the necessary articles, and if he hasn't got the cash, time enough to go out and get it. Those who get in late will have to take what is left, if anything. So stir your stumps and get your letters in early.

A Sudden Change.

Saturday morning we were having the good old Summer Time, with the thermometer up to 74, and everybody happy. Along in the afternoon there came a change, the air grew chilly, rain, mixed with sleet and snow, came in the evening, and by Sunday morning the thermometer had gone down to 11 degrees above zero, said to be the coldest November day in 75 years, Cold enough anyway. Since then the weather has moderated considerably, with prospects of some fair weather yet between this and spring. From our exchanges we gather that the people all around us had a much worse storm than we, and we should be glad we live in the land so highly favored that even the rough storms go around. Central Missouri is the place.
